Dear Dr. Izzeldin Abuelaish,

The United Auto Workers would like to honor your commitment to social justice, human rights, and peace by presenting you with the UAW Walter Reuther Social Justice Award. It is one of the highest honors one can receive from the UAW.

This award is in memory of former UAW President Walter Reuther, a champion for human and civil rights. Previous recipients of this prestigious Award include Danny Glover, and UAW President Emeritus Owen Bieber. Since its founding in 1935, the UAW has been deeply engaged in the struggle for social and economic justice.

In addition to this Award, the UAW Keeping the Dream Alive Foundation would like to give a donation to your Daughters for Life Foundation. Your Foundation expands girls' opportunities in the Middle East through access to higher education, and building their leadership potential.

To recognize your work, we would like to host an award ceremony and reception in Michigan this December, co-sponsored with the Arab Community Center for Economic & Social Services (ACCESS).

The International Union, United Automobile, Aerospace and Agricultural Implement Workers of America (UAW) has members in almost every industry, including multinational corporations, local governments, colleges and hospitals. There are over 390,000 active UAW members and 600,000 retired members in the US, Canada and Puerto Rico, and 750 local unions.

Sincerely,

Bob King
