CENTRE FOR GLOBAL HEALTH

ANNOUNCEMENT

GLOBAL HEALTH RESEARCH AWARD FOR DOCTORAL STUDENTS

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

Launch date: November 9th, 2022

Deadline for submission: December 11th, 2022

DESCRIPTION

The awards will provide financial support for doctoral students to support their global health research dissertation work. The approach to global health at the Dalla Lana School of Public Health (DLSPH) is interdisciplinary and integrative, bringing together ideas, theories, and methodologies from multiple disciplines and sectors. The school emphasizes equity-oriented research, policy and practice, that is, work focusing on the health and health system challenges of populations living and working in conditions of vulnerability in all countries and the relationship of these challenges to global, national and local political, social, economic, cultural, environmental and institutional factors.

ELIGIBILITY

Doctoral students in the Dalla Lana School of Public Health at the University of Toronto (including the Collaborative Specialization in Global Health) who are conducting global health research are eligible to apply. Preference will be given to Doctoral students in the Collaborative Specialization in Global Health. Each student is eligible to receive this award only once.

FUNDS AVAILABLE

- Each award will be up to $7,500 to be used for global health research dissertation work
