Job description and posting:

Research Associate/project manager: Part-time: Expected number of work hours per wk: 15-20 hours

Date of Posting: January 2024

SUMMARY OF DUTIES
This position supports the work of a Family Physician/Specialist Collaborative addressing recommendations that improve coordination and communication between primary and secondary specialist care. Duties include but are not limited to:

• Conducting literature reviews, policy reviews, and synthesis projects
• Development and administration of surveys, interviews, data collection, and analysis
• Collaboration in information sharing
• Advocating for mandate of Physician/Specialist Collaborative
• Engagement activities with stakeholders
• Development of briefs/presentations to thought leaders and associated representative organizations

QUALIFICATIONS:

• Master’s level education, Ph.D. level Student or Post-doctoral fellow with experience in health services research
• Strong oral and written communication skills
• Experience with knowledge translation and change management in health care context
• Experience with systematic reviews an asset
• Excellent organizational and writing skills.

Compensation: Commensurate with experience: From $32-$40 an hour

Please submit a one-page cover letter and Curriculum Vitae by email to: Nkem Obinyelaku: nobinyelaku@kensingtonhealth.org
Closing date: Feb. 15,2024