

Connaught Mid-Career Researcher Award 2024-2025 DLSPH Submission Form

The purpose of the Mid-Career Researcher Award program is to foster excellence in research and innovation by providing support for University of Toronto (UofT) faculty members who are at the mid-career stage. All UofT Divisions receive an annual allocation of nominations, determined by the proportionate 3-year rolling average of NSERC/SSHRC/CIHR funding. For 2024, DLSPH has been allocated 2 nominations.

Application Instructions

Interested DLSPH mid-career faculty members must submit the following materials to research.dlsph@utoronto.ca by 4:00 PM ET on Wednesday, December 4, 2024:

1. A completed submission form, and
2. a current CV.

Results of the internal competition will be shared with all applicants by December 20, 2024. The material requested by DLSPH is only a subset of the information needed for a full application; if a nomination is selected to be endorsed by DLSPH, the individual must complete the full application, described on the UofT Connaught website, in advance of the March 15, 2025 deadline.

Applicant Information

Full Name:

E-mail:

Faculty: DLSPH

Department:

Eligibility Confirmation

To be eligible for the Connaught Mid-Career Researcher Award, applicants must be:

1. A full-time tenure-stream faculty member,
2. whose primary employer is the UofT,
3. who is at the Associate Professor level AND,
4. as of the date of application, is within no less than 5 years and no more than 15 years of their first tenure-stream professorial appointment (at UofT or elsewhere).

The window of eligibility may be extended if a nominee has experienced significant interruptions in their academic career. Eligibility-related questions should be addressed to the Connaught Secretariat in advance of the submission deadline. Final determination of eligibility will be made upon receipt of an application.

Do you meet all eligibility criteria above? Yes No

If you answered no, please provide a short justification for applying outside the 5-15 year window.

Nomination Stream

Nomination Stream Rationale

Provide a rationale of up to 250 words, briefly describing why you are interested in applying to this specific stream and how it will support your career progression.

Executive Summary

Provide an executive summary of up to 250 words, briefly describing in non-specialist language your project, its anticipated significance/impact on the relevant area of research, and its applicability to matters of public interest.